

I drive truck into many different cities each month. Having XM supply me with traffic in some of the major ones has really helped. I cannot remember each town I go to what station does or does not have a constant traffic update and to have XM fill this area is of a great value to me.

Do not allow the current old fashioned broadcasters to slow the progress of XM and any other system that provides better and easier to get services.

Thankyou